COME CELEBRATE "OUR AMERICAN STORIES" WITH SCHOLA CANTORUM ON HUDSON

Schola Sings Solo Concert in Ramsey, New Jersey

Jersey City, NJ – Soloists from the innovative choral ensemble Schola Cantorum on Hudson present an evening of American music in the first performance of this season's Schola Sings Solo recital series. The program explores operatic, art song, folksong and musical theatre repertoire. The roster of all-American composers includes Leonard Bernstein, John Bucchino, Aaron Copland, George Gershwin, Libby Larsen, Stephen Sondheim, Kurt Weill and others with selections that include "One Hand, One Heart" and "Tonight" from West Side Story, "It Ain't Necessarily So" from Porgy and Bess and "Willow Song" from The Ballad of Baby Doe. Dorian Lake, a composer and singing member of SCH, will perform his composition "If I Give Up My Wants." Schola Cantorum on Hudson's Artistic Director and Founder Deborah Simpkin King is one of the featured soloists. Dramatic Coach Chuck Hudson stage directs this presentation; Music Director Stephen Rapp provides accompaniment.

The concert will be performed on Saturday evening, November 14, 2009, at 8:00 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 15 Shuart Lane, Ramsey, New Jersey. All tickets are priced at $15 in honor of the group's 15th Anniversary Season. Advance tickets may be purchased online at ScholaOnHudson.org, by phone at (201) 918-3011, or by email at BoxOffice@ScholaOnHudson.org. Groups interested in purchasing a block of ten or more tickets may email GroupSales@ScholaOnHudson.org for more information on special rates. Additional information regarding this concert or the ensemble and its activities can be obtained online at ScholaOnHudson.org or by calling 201-918-3009.
