Have you ever seen a blue moose?
Now's your chance!

Illustrator Rolandas Kiaulevicius will be here to entertain us with his dancing and storytelling talents. He'll fill us in on what's happening at the Metro Park Zoo. Attendance is down at the zoo and it may have to close, so the animals have come up with a creative plan to save the zoo!

Mr. Kiaulevicius illustrated the book "Zoolidays," written by Bruce Glassman. He will visit the library and demonstrate his drawing and storytelling skills. Originally from Lithuania, Mr. Kiaulevicius is a graduate of Western Connecticut State University, chosen as an outstanding student illustrator by Red Cygnet Press to illustrate the book "Zoolidays."

Books will be available for purchase and autographing.

Free. No registration.
