

For immediate release for community calendars [recurring item];
Contact: Gary Benjamin; gbenjamin@uhcanohio.org; 216-241-8422 x 21

TR Reid, International Correspondent and Author, Appearing in Cleveland

TR Reid, international correspondent for NPR, PBS and the Washington Post, will be speaking on Saturday, June 20th at 7:00 PM at Trinity Cathedral -- 2230 Euclid Avenue -- in Cleveland. Mr. Reid will be speaking on the topic of his "Frontline" show entitled "Sick Around the World." His book, based on that show – The Healing of America – will be published in August.

The Master of Ceremonies will be Eric Wellman of WCPN's "Morning Edition." Mr. Reid will be introduced by Sister Judith Ann Karam, CSA, CEO of the Sisters of Charity Health System. Mr. Reid is brought to Cleveland by the Universal Health Care Action Network of Ohio [UHCAN Ohio] and its co-sponsors – the UAW, Sisters of Charity Health Systems, Center for Health Affairs, Trinity Cathedral, United Church of Christ, North Shore AFL-CIO and the Presbytery of the Western Reserve. The event is a fundraiser for UHCAN Ohio.

A reception will be held at 5:30 PM at Trinity. Tickets for the Reception and Presentation are $50. Tickets for the presentation only are $10. Tickets may be ordered online at www.ohioconsumersforhealth.org or via fax at 1-614-456-0059 or mail to UHCAN Ohio.

For more information contact Gary Benjamin at 216-241-8422 x 21.