UNHEARD VOICES SPEAK

This annual event was created by Debbie Riddle, whose sister Peggy Klinkle was tragically murdered by a man who stalked her for a year. Debbie wanted to translate her family's painful tragedy into a force for positive change by educating the community.

Each year, over 1.4 million people in the U.S. are stalked, yet stalking remains one of the most undetected crimes. Proceeds help the Domestic Violence Center to continue to raise awareness and work with stalking victims in the community.

The mission of the Domestic Violence Center is to empower individuals, promote justice and mobilize the community so that all people are free from violence and abuse in their relationships and homes.

Please join the DVC at ARTiculation: Unheard Voices Speak, our sixth annual art auction and benefit.
