FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WORLDWIDE INTERCULTURAL NETWORK PRESENTS A SENSORY EXPERIENCE IN INTERCULTURAL NETWORKING

CLEVELAND – May 31, 2011 – Worldwide Intercultural Network Cleveland hosts its inaugural international arts show and bazaar to celebrate Northeast Ohio’s multicultural heritage and creative talents.

Global Arts, Local Artists is an arts and cultural extravaganza and will feature poets, artists, photographers, singers, musicians and ethnic food from some of Cleveland’s best. The arts and cultural networking extravaganza will be held on June 17 at Cleveland City Hall from 5:30 p.m. – 9 p.m. Admission is $10.

“Greater Cleveland is home to nearly 130 nationalities who contribute to the vibrant tapestry of our city’s multiculturalism, arts, economy and hospitality,” said Richard Eastburn, a WIN Cleveland founding member.

“We wanted to showcase our rich multicultural artistic community and bring everyone together to network and learn more about each other. What better way to accomplish both goals than through a unique sensory experience incorporating music, art and food in a relaxed atmosphere?” Eastburn said.

WIN Cleveland is seeking poets, artists, photographers, graphic artists, singers and musicians interested in displaying their art or performing during the event. Corporate sponsorships are available, along with vendor booths which are $30 each. Everyone is encouraged to wear ethnic clothing.

For additional information, contact WIN Cleveland at 440.941.6088. Tickets will be sold at the door or may be bought in advance at <http://wincleveland-eorg.eventbrite.com>.

WIN Cleveland is a grassroots organization founded to energize Cleveland's multicultural communities, engage them in effective dialogue through events and educate them of global possibilities through local interaction. The group envisions a collaborative community that will attract and retain the best and brightest talent from around the world. Individual memberships are $15, and a family of four may join for $25.
