SAN BERNARDINO VALLEY COLLEGE CALLS FOR DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI NOMINATIONS

(SAN BERNARDINO, Calif.) San Bernardino Valley College is celebrating 85 years of education in our community and on October 21st they are throwing a gala celebration befitting the occasion. The event will honor 85 alumni and friends who have made a positive impact on the community.

“Our alumni are in all segments of our society; making an impact every day,” says Donna Hoffmann, Director of the San Bernardino Valley College Foundation, “they are business leaders, nurses, skilled tradesmen, chefs, teachers and more. We want to honor those who make this community a better place to live.”

Is there a SBVC alumnus who has made an impact on your life? You can nominate them by completing the form at www.sbvcfoundation.org. Submissions are due by June 1, 2011. Honorees must have attended San Bernardino Valley College, but not necessarily graduated.
